Master of Science in Nursing
Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurse Practitioner (World Wide Web)

Concentration Description
The psychiatric-mental health nurse practitioner (PMHNP) concentration prepares professional nurses as safe and competent practitioners of psychiatric and mental health services who become eligible to sit for the certification exam given by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) upon graduation. The 43-semester hour concentration includes core courses, concentration courses, and clinical practicums (total of 550 hours). All content courses are offered online and the clinical experiences are arranged in a geographically convenient area for the student.

Requirements for Admission
Admission to the Master of Science in nursing program requires the student to meet the minimum admission requirements for graduate study of the university and the following requirements of the College of Nursing:

- A baccalaureate degree in nursing from an accredited program
- A minimum GPA of 2.7 in undergraduate studies and a minimum GPA of 3.0 in nursing major
- Acceptable score on the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) with an average score of 150/3.5 within the past five years.
- Current non-restricted license to practice as a registered nurse (RN) in North Carolina or an NCSBN-compact state (Individual advisement may be necessary for licensure regulations for online out-of-state students)
- One year experience as a registered nurse (RN). Admission priority is given to applicants who have at least one year of psychiatric nursing experience and plan to provide direct care upon program completion.
- Three professional references, with at least one reference from a NP.
- A statement of purpose essay describing the applicant’s interest in graduate study, career goals and the MSN degree’s relationship to those goals
- A current resume
- A personal interview with a member of the graduate faculty
- A course in statistics with a grade of “C” or higher

Requirements for Clinical Courses
Information regarding clinical requirements can be found in the ECU College of Nursing Student Handbook at: www.ecu.edu/csdhs/nursing/customcf/downloads/handbooks/grad_handbook.pdf Upon admission all graduate students are required to complete a criminal background check. Students will receive specific instructions from the Office of Student Services on how to complete this process.
