

College of Nursing awards 75 student scholarships

September 21, 2017

The College of Nursing celebrated 75 students receiving scholarships totaling more than $330,000 at a ceremony on Friday, Sept. 15 at the college.

During the ceremony Dr. Sylvia Brown, Dean of the College of Nursing, thanked donors for helping to enable students to pursue their dreams of becoming nurses or to continue their education in the field.

Student scholarship recipients were recognized during a ceremony at the College of Nursing on Friday, Sept. 15.

“Your continued generosity allows our students to focus on meeting their educational goals and worry less about financial constraints,” Brown said. “Please know that your gifts make a huge difference in our students’ ability to study and meet the demands of the nursing curriculum.”

Recipients of scholarships this year include first-generation college students, parents, professionals entering their second careers and students who have overcome personal challenges and illnesses.
