

DNP Post-Masters APRN Elective Options

Electives can augment your current expertise, or assist you in taking your professional career in a new direction. We will work with you to select electives that best serve you and your plan of study. Post-masters APRN students take three electives during their DNP studies.

A sample of ECU electives from the College of Nursing and other Colleges or Departments include the following:

Nursing Education

N6903 Curriculum Development in Nursing

N6904 Educational Concepts, Theories, and Strategies in Nursing

N6909 Evaluation in Nursing

Public Health

MPH 6036 Fundamentals in Agromedicine

Health Care Communication

COHE 6000 Health Care Systems and Problems

COMM 6210 Media and Health Communication

COMM 6220 Interpersonal Health Communication

COMM 6221 Intercultural Communication in Health Contexts

COMM 6224 Communication Approaches to Health Advocacy

COMM 6211 Health Communication Campaigns

COMM 6222 Family Communication and Health

COMM 6240 Special Topics in Health Communication

Leadership and Organizational Behavior

PADM 6100 Politics and Management in Public Agencies

PADM 6110 Human Resource Management in Public Agencies

MGMT 6802 Organizational Behavior

MGMT 6832 Human Resources

Informatics

N8271 Informatics for Advanced Nursing Practice

EDTC 6010 Introduction to Instructional Technology

Updated August 2019