Nomination Story

CHERYL ELHAMMOUMI

- ❖ Ms. Elhammoumi has published several articles relating to the scholarship of teaching.
- ❖ She has served as Chair of the Diversity Advisory Council for many years.
- ❖ One of her colleagues wrote “She is a wonderful colleague and role model for our students. Students respect her intelligence and her guidance based on her rich experiences from which she teaches. Cheryl’s enthusiasm for nursing is contagious.”
- ❖ Since 2010 she has served as a visiting professor at Novia University of Applied Sciences in Vasa, Finland where she teaches students from multiple nations.
- ❖ She has collaborated with her colleagues on course development and organized a study abroad program for ECU students.
- ❖ Ms. Elhammoumi serves as an excellent role model for students and is well deserving of this award.

Nomination Story

SUSAN LALLY

- ❖ Ms. Lally has taught undergraduate psychiatric nursing since 2010 and possesses a passion for nursing care of those with psychiatric disorders.
- ❖ She brings her vast clinical experience in psychiatric nursing to her teaching.
- ❖ She has served as the faculty advisor for the CON Student Nurses Association and currently is the advisor for the Holistic Nursing Student Organization in the CON.
- ❖ Ms. Lally demonstrates great respect for her students and strives to be fair and unbiased in her interactions with students.
- ❖ She also understands exam anxiety and brings her dogs to the CON for Pet Therapy for students during final exam week.
- ❖ She is caring faculty member and well deserving of this award.

Nomination Story

CAROLYN HORNE

- ❖ Dr. Horne began teaching in the Clinical Nurse Specialist program after 10 years of clinical experience as a Vascular CNS, serving for many years as the concentration director.
- ❖ She is perceived by students as approachable and knowledgeable.
- ❖ Dr. Horne successfully mentors undergraduate students in their honors projects and one student received an award for her work.
- ❖ Dr. Horne is active in research and has published numerous articles.
- ❖ She obtained certification in biofeedback and has established with her colleague a biofeedback clinic.
- ❖ She has a passion for the care of clients who receive amputations and conducts a support group for these clients.
- ❖ She is highly deserving of the Daisy Award.

Nomination Story

HOLLY WEI

- ❖ Dr. Wei joined the ECUCON faculty in 2016 as graduate faculty. Since that time, she has mentored undergraduate, MSN, DNP and PhD students in successfully publishing (10 articles).
- ❖ In addition, Dr. Wei is viewed by students as a highly effective educator. She receives positive feedback from students regarding her courses.
- ❖ She has mentored honors' students in their research.
- ❖ One of her current students wrote "You are inspirational. I hope at some point in my career I can work with you or a team to publish an article or two."
- ❖ Dr. Wei is active in research and currently has two funded grants. She is an active member of faculty governance.
- ❖ Dr. Wei is highly deserving of the DAISY Award.
