UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT

Hadley Hilton

GRADUATE STUDENT

Sandra Leggott, BSN, FNP-BC

Nomination Story: Undergraduate Student

HADLEY HILTON

- ❖ Hadley was one of the top students in her clinical group. Even when faced with challenging situations, she did not allow herself to conform to poor attitudes and behaviors. She remained professional and was a pleasure to work with the entire semester.
- ❖ She put a lot of effort into her clinical assignments and was above average in the classroom course. Her peers would come to her for advice.
- ❖ Her group had clinical on a unit that is notorious for being busy and challenging, physically, mentally and emotionally, which she handled beautifully.
- ❖ Hadley appreciated all the learning opportunities she could get.

Nomination Story: Graduate Student

SANDRA LEGGOTT

- ❖ Sandra has excelled as a student during her short time at ECU and is undoubtedly leaving a blueprint for future student leaders.
- ❖ She has served as an elected liaison between the student body and the faculty, participating in faculty meetings to ensure that students' feedback impacts program planning.
- ❖ Her passion for empathetic, evidence-based patient care resonates in her DNP project work, "Transitions of Care: Improving Discharge Teaching in Stroke Patients."
- ❖ Sandra exhibits every attribute of the College of Nursing Mission and Vision. This Pirate Nurse will continue to care for people and communities through direct care, community engagement, policy impact, and innovation and dissemination of healthcare transformation strategies for eastern North Carolina and beyond.
